

Planning for kids’ summertime fun starts now

By Susan Alexander
alexanders@knoxnews.com

This year’s News Sentinel compilation of summer camps for kids makes me wish they offered them for adults as well. Over the course of these 52 pages are camps for Harry Potter fans. (I’m one of those! I want to go!) And camps for Angry Birders. Camps for budding chefs and web designers. Camps for the next generation of artists and performers and athletes. There are opportunities to learn about ecology and geology and anthropology. There are courses on horses. Chances for dances. And so much more. All kids need to bring is the courage to try something new and the willingness to have fun as they do it. Open enrollment has begun for many summer camps on a first-come, first-served basis. Some offer added incentives for early registration and payment. The camps are listed alphabetically by the provider’s name in an easy-to-read grid-style format. And each listing contains helpful columns of information, including type of camp, a brief description of what you’ll find there, the ages it serves, its cost, dates and contact info. The information is also available online at knoxnews.com. The programs listed in this year’s summer camps guide are those that replied to a request for information about summer programs in East Tennessee. By publicizing them, we are not endorsing them. If you have questions about a particular summer camp, please contact the provider at the phone number or website listed. They will be your best source for further information. So kids, put on the ballet slippers or the baseball cleats. Grab the butterfly net or the butter. Prepare to peer into a microscope or improve your jump shot. Summer is nearly here, and your parents are jealous.

SUMMER 2012 SOCCER CAMPS

WORLD CLASS COACHING | COMPETITIVE PLAY | TEAMWORK | GOAL SETTING | FRIENDSHIPS

The Knoxville Force, Knoxville's own semi-pro soccer team and FC Alliance, the largest youth soccer club in the state of Tennessee, have partnered to deliver a unique series of specialty training camps that will be led by our combined coaching staff. Our proven curriculum develops the entire player in a professionally coached environment, where players get to meet, learn from, and emulate players from the Knoxville Force and Coaches from FC Alliance. Our programs are open to all players, from beginner to competitive, that are interested in learning soccer and keeping their skills sharp over the summer.

Knox Super Camp Series: Cost Includes (1) Practice Jersey

Knox super camp series is a unique three part series designed to improve the fundamental to the fantastic in every player. Camp highlights include skills sessions, group games, and small sided soccer play. Players run through a progression of training culminating in on field competition.

Session 1: Wicked skills camp gives players the inside scoop on how to dribble, pass, receive, and turn - under pressure and with confidence

Session 2: Sharp Shooter camp teaches players how to strike and place a ball in the back of the net.

Session 3: Playmaker camp works to develop the creative tendencies of the individual player both on the ball and around the ball.

Summer Academy Camps: June 11-July 20 - Cost Includes (1) Practice Jersey

FC Alliance Academy Day Camps are perfect for the recreational or club soccer player looking for skill development and fun. During the week players will be grouped based on age and ability. Emphasis will be placed on learning the game, skill development, speed and agility training, and other various soccer activities developed by professional coaching staff from both the Knoxville Force and FC Alliance. Scrimmages will be played each day under the guidance of our professional coaches, ensuring that players understand the tactics of soccer.

SUMMER IN THE SMOKIES

GREAT SMOKY MOUNTAINS INSTITUTE AT TREMONT

JUNE
JULY

Tremont summer programs for youth ages 9-17 encourage stewardship, create awareness of the outside world and nurture a lifelong appreciation of Great Smoky Mountains National Park. Imagine your child splashing around in an icy cold mountain stream, climbing ridges to an unbelievable view, or choosing from a variety of activities to discover nature through hands-on explorations, games and crafts. Sign your child up today and get them outside this summer!

WARNING: YOUR CHILD
COULD BECOME CRAZY
ABOUT
MATH

Avoid the summer slide...

On average, students lose approximately 2.6 months of grade level equivalency in math over the summer months according to the Johns Hopkins University Center for Summer Learning. At Mathnasium, your child could not only retain his or her math, but gain ground and confidence for the next school year! That's why we say...

Catch up, keep up, or get ahead this summer!

Rising K through 12th grade
May 28 - August 11, 2012

Limited Enrollment! Reserve your student's space now!
